

Multiple-Schools Shared-Site Workshop

Schedule up to 8 hours of professional development

The Multiple-Schools Shared-Site option has been created to provide a reduced cost option for schools that are able to collaborate and share professional development at a single site. This has been a popular option for groups of two to five schools. Schools across the country have taken advantage of this choice. With this option, schools share both training fees and expenses. At these workshops, schools can choose to have staff involved in workshop activities within their school groups or to work collaboratively with other schools. Schools located near each other and at a distance from each other have made this choice.
